8. Appeal Decision - 25/00798/FUL - Barn B at Bush Farm, Hall Road, Great Bromley, CO7 7TR (25/00039/REFUSE)

Members were advised that the appeal was dismissed on 24th November 2025, and the application for an award of costs was refused.

9. Reports

- a) County Councillor's Report - circulated
- b) District Councillors' Reports – circulated
 - Consultation for new Local Plan in February 2026 – Clerk to accept TDC's invitation to a meeting with members.
- c) Parish Councillors' Reports

Cllr Smith reported that there had been no Speedwatch sessions. He had attended the Ardleigh meeting regarding the Norwich to Tilbury National Grid, and had drafted the consultation response which the Clerk had submitted.

Cllr Mander had attended the Village Hall meeting. The Village Hall had agreed to take on the two flower tubs outside the hall, and would also take on responsibility for the defibrillator, with the Parish Council providing the cabinet cover and replacement pads. The dog bin at Bromley Cross was overflowing; Cllr Scott had reported this.

Cllr Fairley reported that Church Meadow would need to be closed for one day and that some tree branches required pruning. A date would be agreed and publicised. A rough sleeper had been seen in Park Road and would be reported to Cllr Scott. A potentially abandoned vehicle had been noted in Church Meadow.

Cllr Nicholls reported that three residents had approached him regarding the dog bin in Church Meadow, stating that its current position was not desirable.

Cllr Murch reported on matters relating to the Hare Green Play Area. He had spoken with the football representative who had advised that matting for car parking was being sourced. A possible portacabin with a toilet was being considered. Cllr Hardy would liaise with the Club regarding the placement of the matting.

- d) Clerk's Report and Correspondence received
 - A resident had reported a broken footpath sign.
 - A resident had reported a low flying helicopter in the area. The Clerk had suggested contacting the UK Civil Aviation Authority.

10. Action Sheet review and update

The actions from the last meeting were reviewed and noted.

11. Accounts, budget and precept for 2026-27

- a) The Clerk confirmed the accounts were in order.
- b) Cllr Fairley proposed, Cllr Murch seconded, and all Members agreed on the budget for 2026-27, including a 13.2% increase to the precept to £38,150. In absolute terms, this represented an annual increase of £10.07 for the average Band D household.

12. Tree Management policy

Members considered adopting a Tree Management policy, with the aim of establishing a consistent framework for the care, maintenance, and protection of trees within the parish.

Great Bromley Parish Council

It was agreed for the Clerk to draft a policy in liaison with the Tree Surveyor and to present the policy for approval at a future meeting.

It was noted that the recent tree survey had found urgent work required on just one tree which the Maintenance team had addressed prior to the meeting.

13. Highways update

To receive an update regarding local highways issues.

Cllr Mander reported that Ardleigh Road had been closed last week without notice, for kerb and iron works by Essex Highways. The Clerk undertook to raise with Cllr Guglielmi. It was noted that the pothole repairs in Hilliards Road undertaken earlier this year had become loose.
